Where can I find the list of job openings?

Follow the Search Jobs link—it will take you to our job postings. You can then search by keyword, job type, or location.

How do I apply for a position at a US QVC location?

Our online application will guide you through the application process and will allow you to upload a resume and supporting documents, and complete any required pre-screening.

How do I apply for a position at an international QVC location?

Select a country under the Search Opportunities section to see available positions by location.

I'm interested in an internship at QVC. When are they available?

The timing of our internships varies by department throughout the year. We post the intern positions as soon as they are available. Internship opportunities can be found by searching Intern under the Search Opportunities section.

I applied online. How long will it take for me to hear the status?

Your interest is very important to us and we strive to review and respond to all applicants. You will receive an automated acknowledgement upon the completion of your application and a follow up communication within 2 weeks of your application, either by phone or email.

How can I be sure that a position I find online hasn't already been filled?

Once a position has been filled, it will no longer appear on the website.

I've worked for QVC before. How do I re-apply?

Thanks for your interest in returning to QVC! All candidates are required to submit an online application. You will be able to note in your application that you have previously worked for QVC.

Can I apply for multiple positions?

While you can apply for multiple positions, we encourage you to thoroughly read the position description and requirements and submit applications to those that most closely match your qualifications. We will review your
